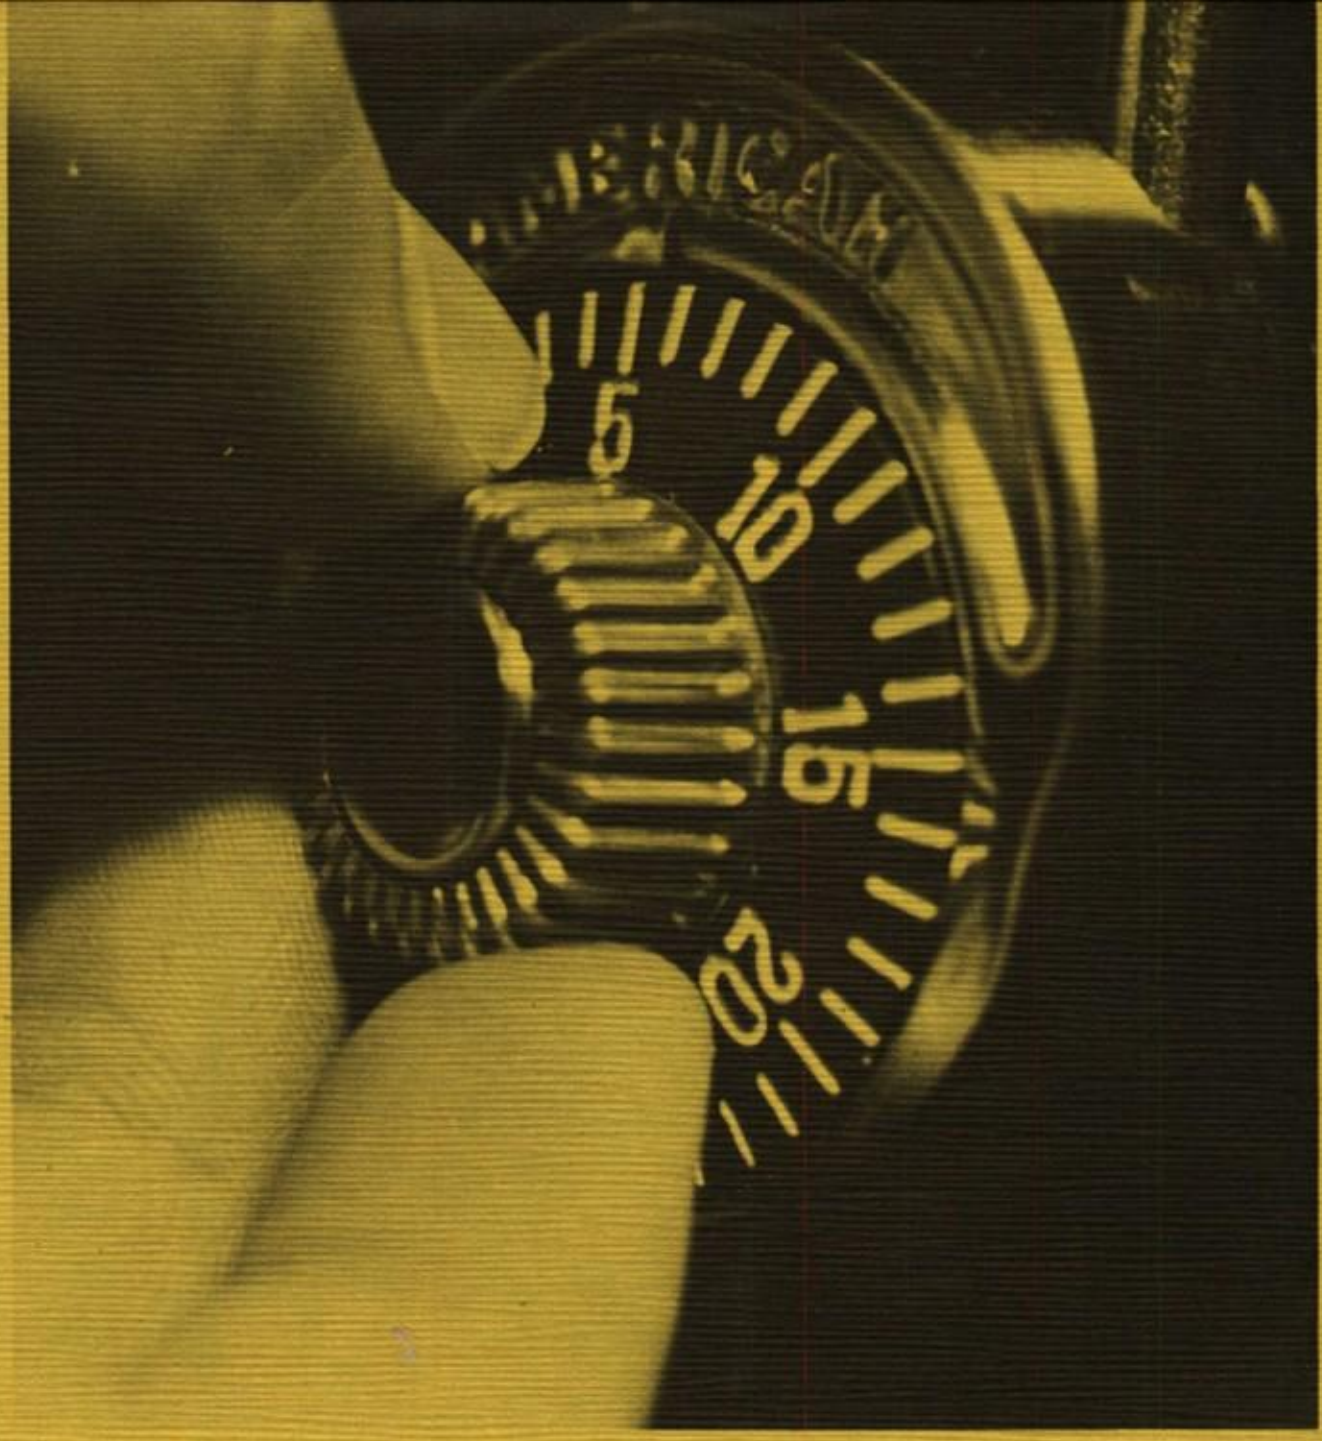
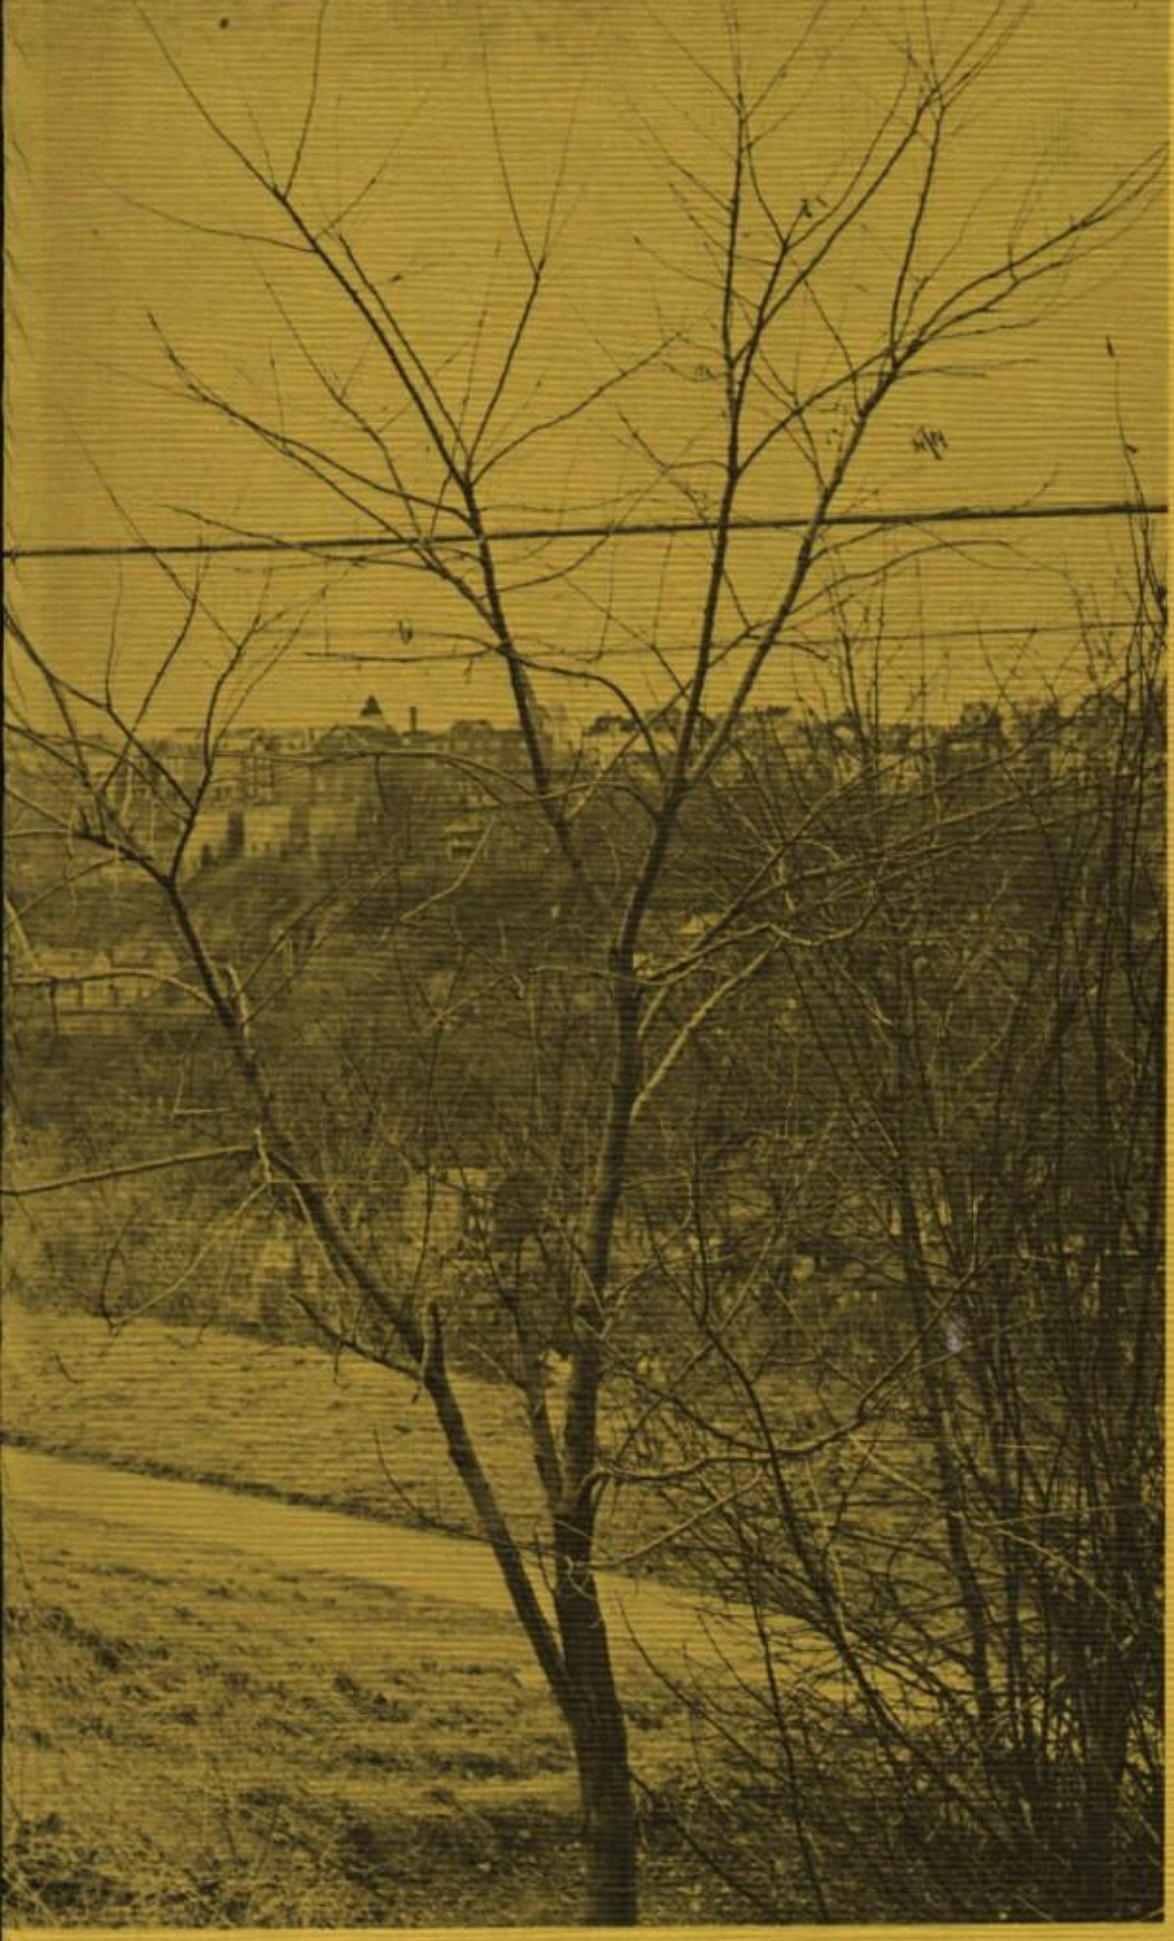
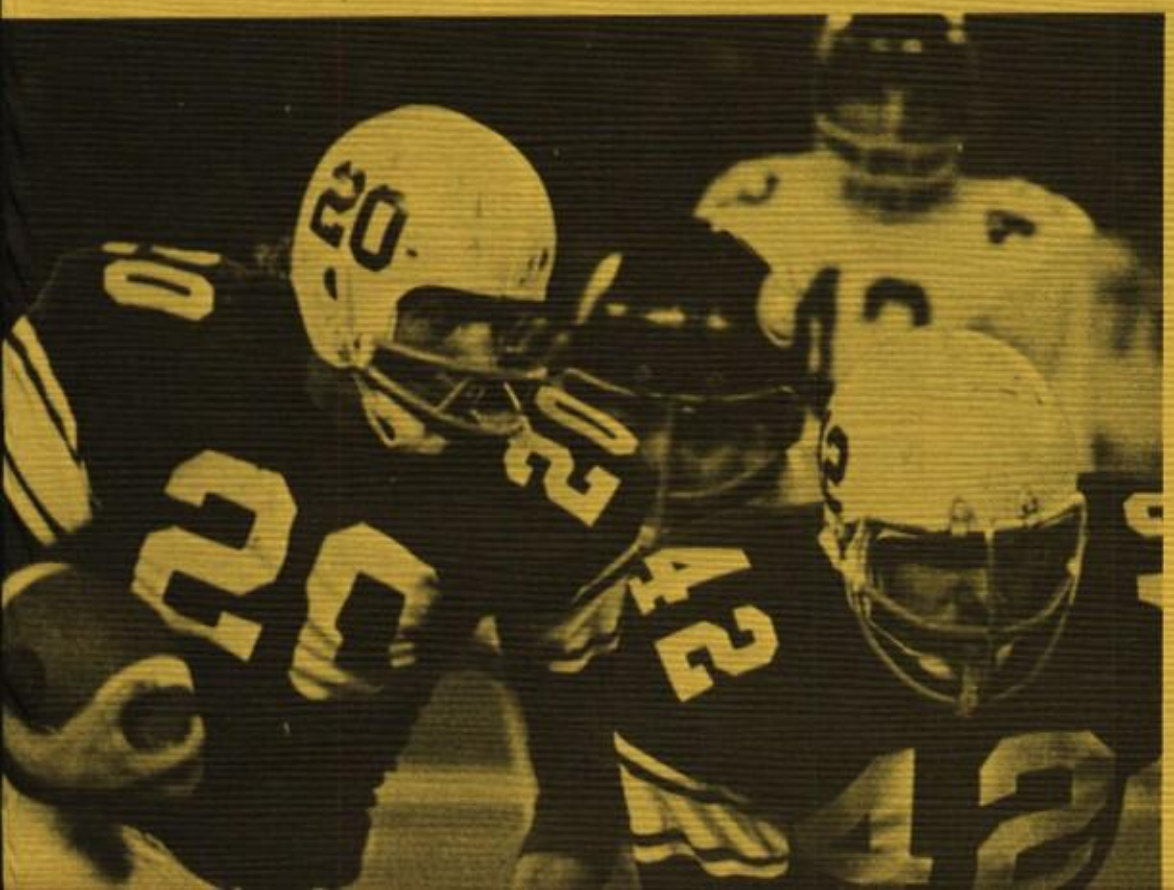
NORTH CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
CHANGE OF ADD
THE TROJAN
NORTH CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA







In September, the breeze on Troy Hill was still warm. North Catholic's student parking lot was barren, but also anticipating the return of the upperclassmen on the following day.

Inside, it was orientation and confused freshmen walked down the marble walled halls. A day later the parking lot once again became the jumble that it is for three seasons of the year. North Catholic was alive again.

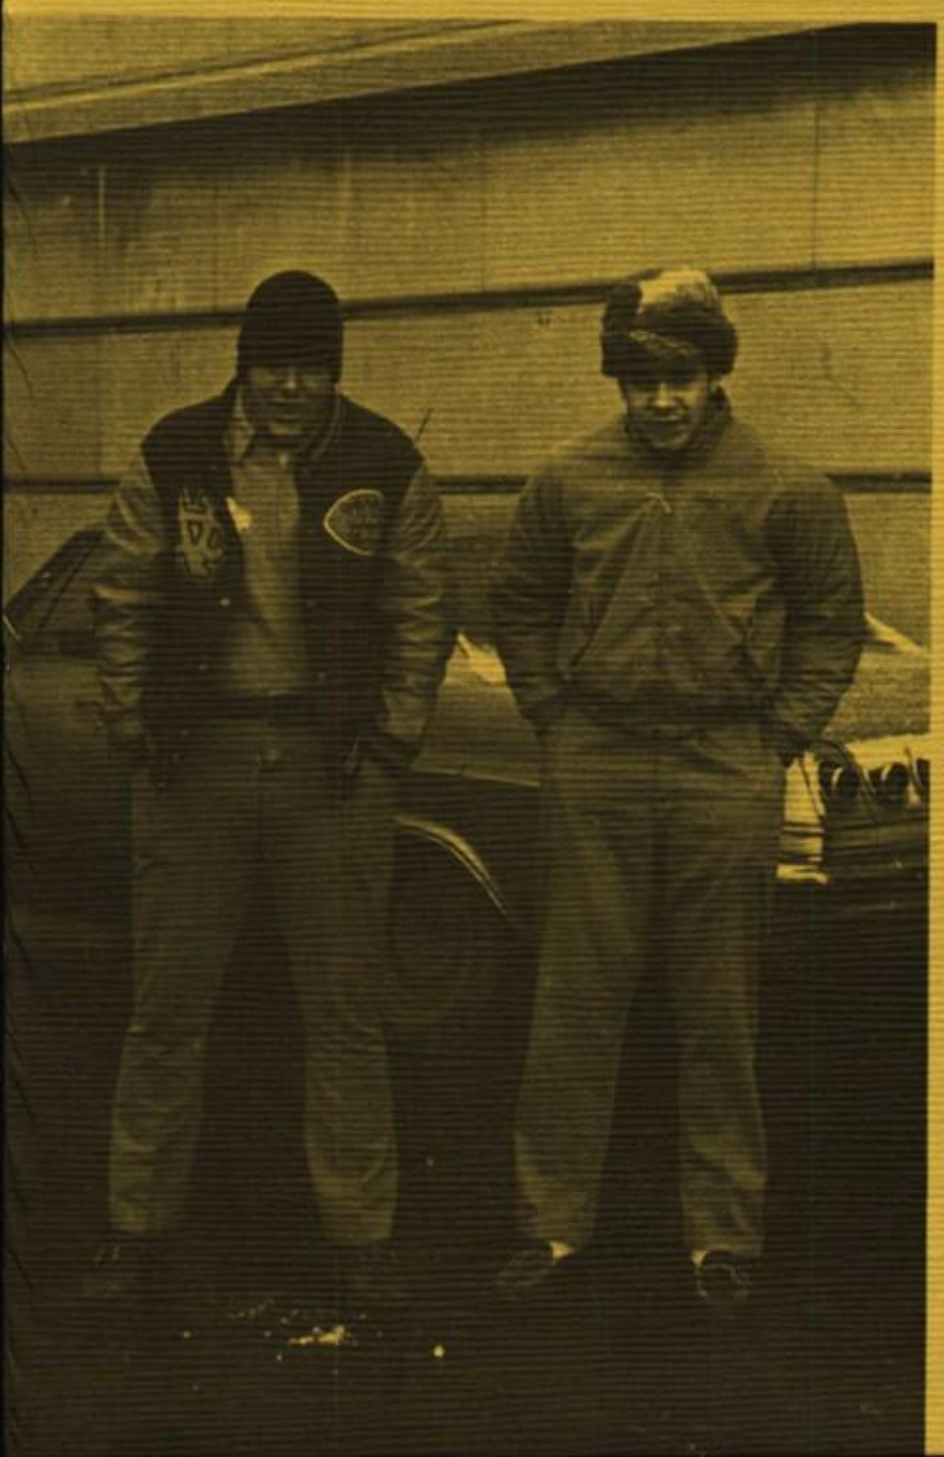
"New lights, looks better than last year." "Just a physical improvement."

"How was your summer?" "Not bad . . . made a lot of money." Wild . . . wild . . . wild . . . The classes are the same as before, perhaps in a different room with different faces. A week later the tunnel by the gym is a throng. Overhead, drums beat. Ten minutes of "To the top," five more of "We're number one."

That night . . . the game. It rained and the fog rolled down the nearby Allegheny. With an effort, we won. The weeks passed slowly at first, then came the realization that it had been nine weeks . . . "Nine weeks is a long time."

"College boards tomorrow, Central game tonight." At Three Rivers Stadium, the Vikings play well, but are crushed. The ferocity on the field is nearly matched by the ferocity under the scoreboard . . . tradition. Boards tomorrow, coffee and eggs for breakfast . . .

ICE CREAM
SANDWICHES — ICE CREAM BAR



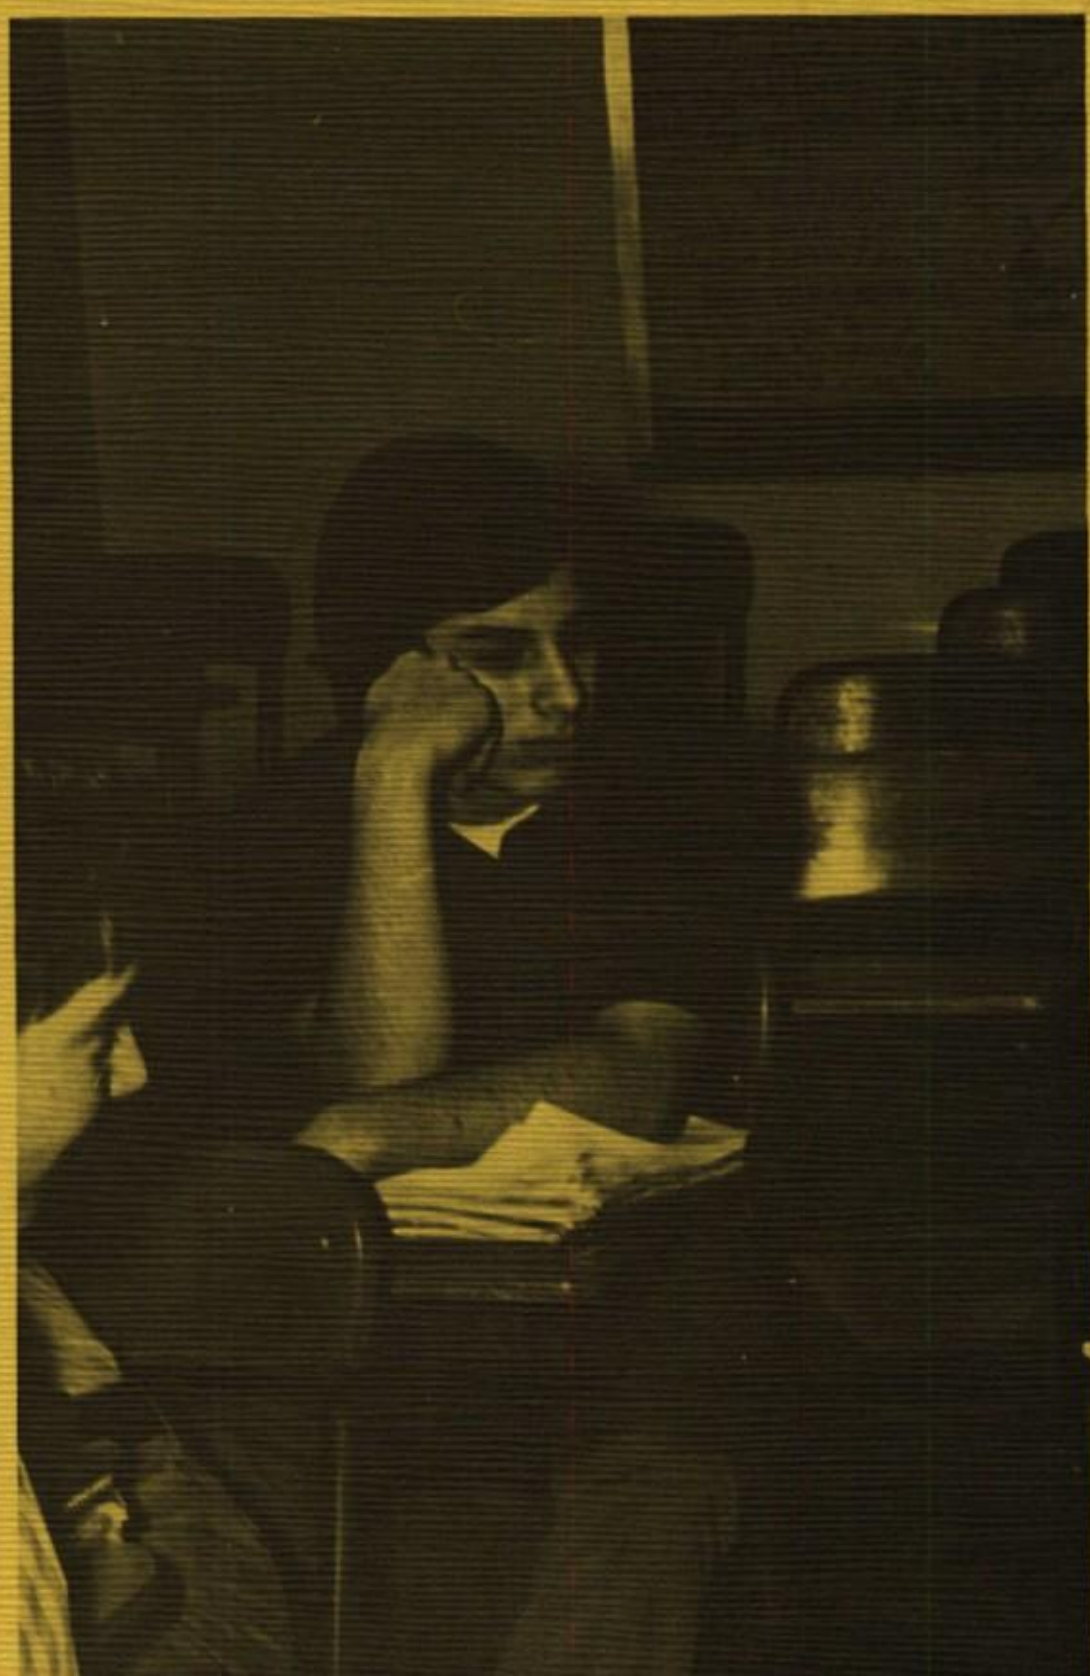
Thanksgiving; turkey in the cafeteria and then a few days vacation. The snow comes, and so do the half-semester grades. A dance on Friday night; girls in the center while North students stalk the perimeter, the basketball hoops look on.

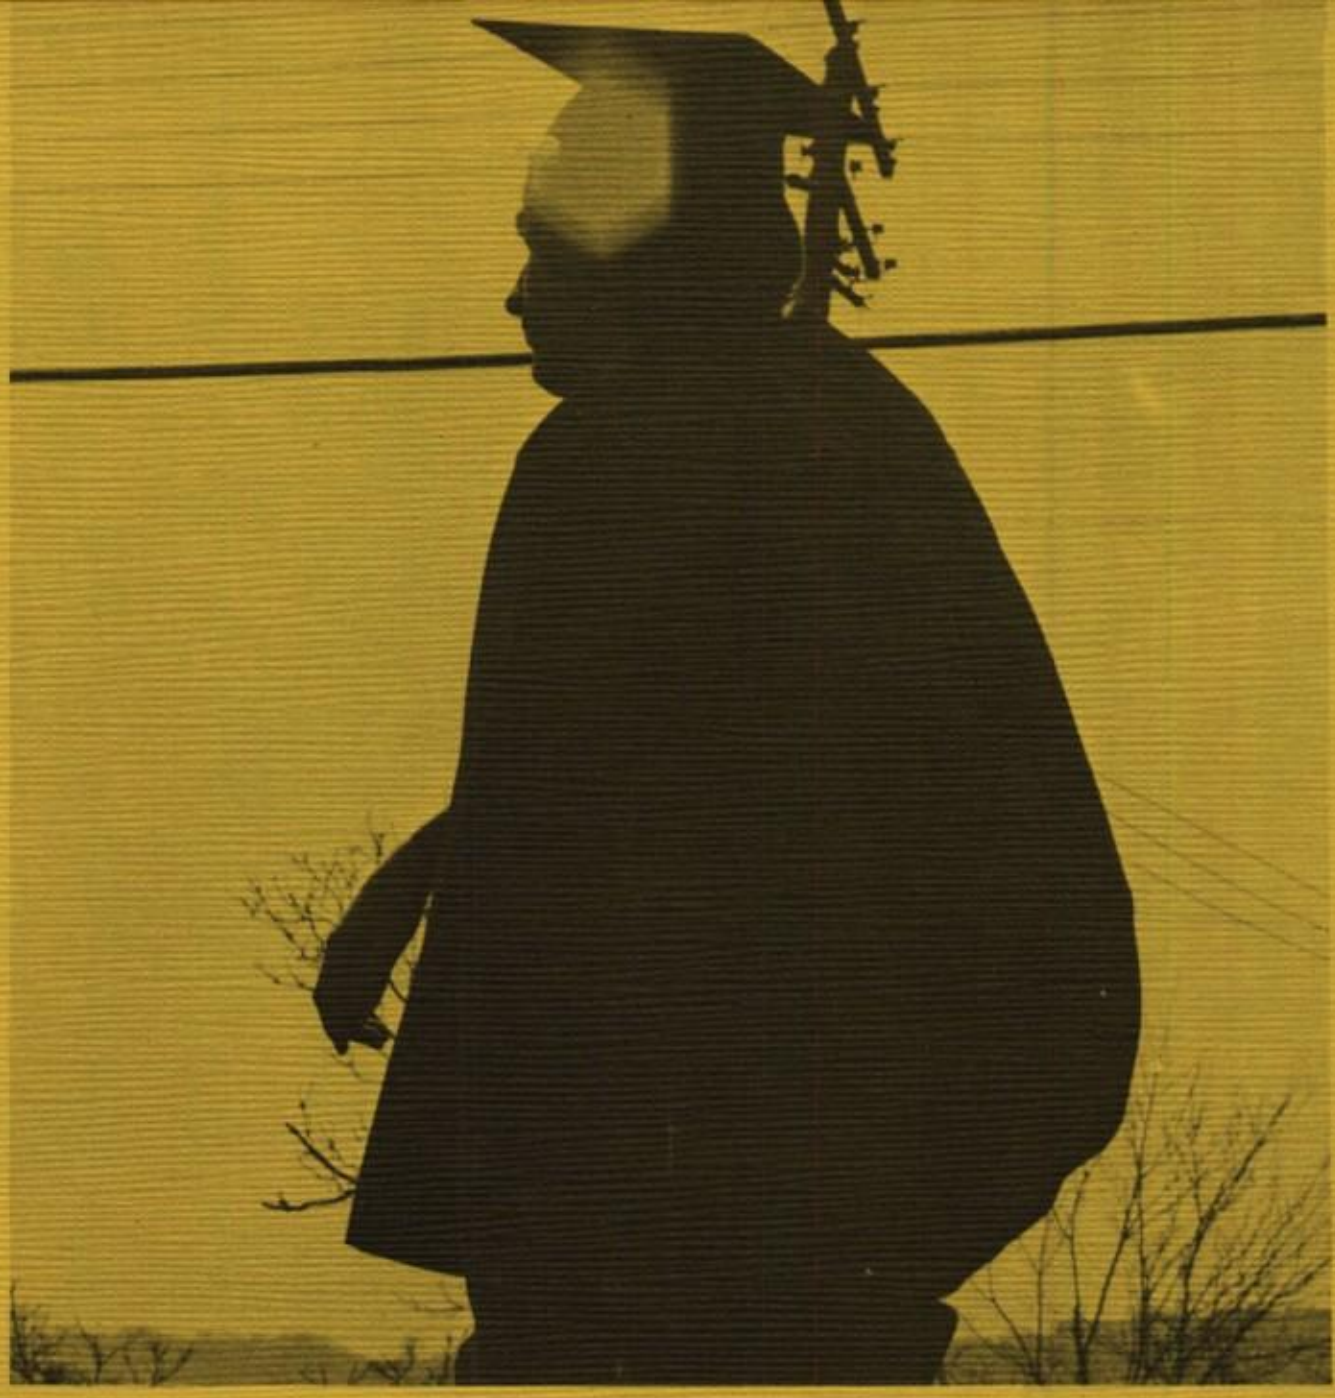
Christmas comes, and with it, not a flake of snow.

New Year's Eve . . . then day . . . 1972. Monday morning arrives . . . back to school. The semester tests loom ahead . . . cram. February arrives and the ski addicts race to the slopes. The seniors relax and take up a new pastime, watching the mail. Nothing doing. The days are painfully long, and yet, they accumulate quickly and the weeks pass unnoticed.

The balmy fragrance of spring drifts into the Troy Hill air. Has spring come or is it Heinz brewing a new vinegar? ". . . Must have been Heinz, it's snowing again." A calculus student hunches over a formidable array of strewn papers gorged with disorganized scribblings. An occasional English student sits in the back of the room, trying to align the thoughts of a thousand diverse thinkers with the thoughts of just one: his own.

Spring finally returns. A bat greets a ball, a foot greets a base pad, and in the dust at Gardner field, baseball season commences . . .





During the spring, the awaited cliche, "End of announcements, classes are dismissed," is the impulse for a daily celebration. Spring fills the air, "Come on over tonight . . . homework, are you kidding?" The prom comes . . . long dresses and formalities; picnics and beer. Then the seniors partake in their last classes at North Catholic. Happiness abounds, but so also do the recollections.

It began on a September Friday, and it ends on a Sunday in June. The parking lot is again full. Those who came as students will go as alumni. The graduating class accepts the final gift of an ancient academic ritual before departing. Congratulations, a shake of the hand, and suddenly no longer a part of the surrounding solidarity. Perhaps they will have all paused to look down the marble hallways once more.

It was autumn,It was a time for
the leaves of an earlier age to bow to the cold
warnings of an age that is yet to come. The age
that is to come
shall be our age.
The future, that autumn, seemed distant, but somber
contemplation
gave way to a buoyant confidence.
Even as the leaves
fell that
autumn, our spirits
were rising.
The season was not bitter, it was
warm and the sun
would not be hindered by the clouds. But the winds were present. The winds shook the trees and told
of the birth of a
new age.

FOOTBALL '71

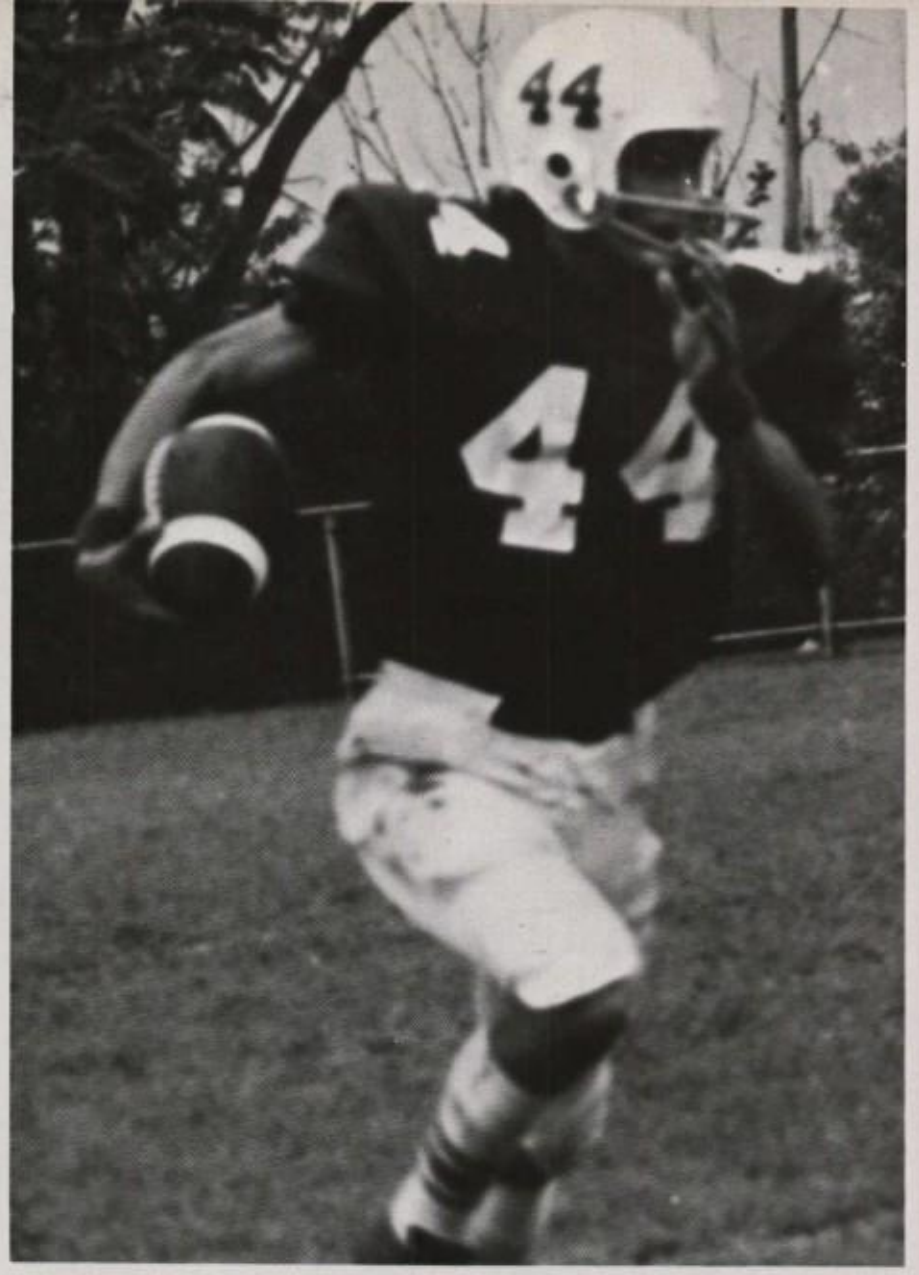
How sweet it is!



Chip Fischer eyes the goal.

Charlie "Bull" Zupsic spearheads the mighty trojan defense.

North 14 — Highlands 6

Despite the drenching rain and a flurry of seven fumbles, the Trojans defeated the Highland Rams fourteen to six in the opening game of the season. Recovering a fumble on North's twelve yard line, Highlands scored first. The Trojans struck back quickly as fullback Eric Mozzetti rambled over left guard for North's first tally. In the second half, Chip Fischer turned the left end and outraced everybody for an eighty-five yard score. North faked the kick and quarterback Dave Thomas lofted the ball to Ken Borgese in the corner of the end zone. The tough defense held and the Trojans added another victory to their chain of twelve from the previous season, establishing, an unprecedented record of thirteen straight wins in a row.

North 24 — McKeesport 27

Four unsuccessful conversions became the deciding factor as the Trojans went down in defeat to the McKeesport Tigers. The score was close and the game well fought by both teams. The mighty Trojans scored in every quarter and outplayed McKeesport statistic wise. The mobile North offense ran up twelve points before the Tigers could get on the scoreboard. Ken Borgese scored on North's first play of the game by receiving a seventy-two yard screen pass from Dave Thomas. Later in the second quarter, he ran for N.C.'s second touchdown. Bobby Zangaro accounted for North's final two TD's with a three yard plunge and a six yard sprint.

North 0 — Brooke 8

The Trojans traveled to Brooke, West Virginia to meet their third exibition opponent of the '71 season. The Bruins gained the lead on a two yard gallop as a result of a North fumble. It turned out to be the game. The Trojans scored twice in the game but scrutinizing penalties sent them back. Again, statistics revealed North's might. The outstanding defense held the Bruins to only four first downs and a total of one-hundred and twenty-seven yards gained. Brooke got within our ten yard line once, and capitalized on it.

North 15 — Penn Hills 20

Penn Hills proved worthy opponents by defeating North twenty to fifteen. In the first quarter, big Jumbo McCabe picked up a loose ball and outraced everybody thirty-six yards for the first Trojan tally. The second score was added by Eric Mozzetti's tackle breaking run. North was leading Penn Hills throughout the game and going into the final quarter with a five point lead. The stubborn Trojan defense held the Indians for eleven consecutive downs inside their own five yard line. Penalties continued to give Penn Hills the ball until, inevitably, they scored on the twelfth play of the series. Donny Feitl, Jay Hazard, Jim Connolly, and the rest of the defense played a hard fought but unrewarding game.

North 8 — South 0*

The Trojans opened up defense of the Catholic League Title successfully with a win over the determined South Catholic Rebels. The game constituted a contest between the Rebels aerial tactics and the Trojans running strategy. The defense, especially the secondary, led by Tom Jackson and Jeff Hite was responsible for four key interceptions, destroying South's hopes for passing gains. Pressure put on by Joe McCabe and Charlie Zupsic had the Rebel backfield in shambles. North's TD was scored by Ken Borgese taking a pass from Dave Thomas. North's runners amassed a total of 288 yards on the ground.

North 26 — Bishop McCort 14*

The Trojan machine shifted into high gear by rolling over the McCort Crushers, in the second league game of the year. The potent North offense kept McCort off-balance by scoring in every quarter with a constant array of runs and passes. The first and second quarter scores were supplied by Dave Thomas on a quarterback keeper and Bobby Zangaro on a seven yard gallop. Third and fourth quarter tallies were added by Jeff Hite and Eric Mozzetti who walked unmolested over the goal lines. Mark Stadler converted North's final scores by kicking the extra points. The praise-worthy defense again proved its might by containing the McCort offense.

North 26 — Steel Valley 14

North took a break in League action to encounter Steel Valley, a merger of Homestead and Munhall, in a exibition contest. The Trojan offense was at perfection as it bombarded the Iron Men with displays of its passing and running strengths. Bobby Zangaro supplied two powerful running scores to give North a quick lead in the opening quarter. In the second half, Dave Thomas connected with Chip Fischer for two more touchdowns. Mark Stadler easily converted the two second half scores. Defensive credit has to be given to Scorp and Jimbo Connolly for their outstanding work in stopping the Iron Men.

North 27 — Canevin 0*

The North Catholic Trojans hammered the Canevin Crusaders twenty-seven zip for their third League victory. The Crusader offense was powerless to score against the hard-hitting Trojan defense, and Canevin's defense was helpless in stopping North's mighty offense. Bobby Zangaro capped two long drives by tallying the first two scores of the game. Dave Thomas and Ken Borgese added to the cause by scoring North's final two TD's. Sophomore kicker, Mark Stadler, added 2 points by converting two of the touchdowns. The Trojan machine had one obstacle in its climb to the top, Central!

North 14 — Central 8*

The only thing standing between North and the championship, with one game remaining, was Central's highly rated team. The traditional rivalry was compounded by the fact that both teams had unblemished League records, and this one contest would decide the title. The superb ball control by the offense and the strict determination of the defense made shambles of the Viking game plan. Bobby Zangaro capped a sixty-seven yard drive by plunging over the goal line from the one. Dave Thomas called his own number and darted into the end zone for the Trojan's second score. Ken Borgese caught a pass to convert and score the fourteenth point. The stubborn defense pounded away at Central giving them only eight points. Credit should be given to the whole team for the way they exemplified, throughout the season, the TROJAN NEVER SAY DIE SPIRIT shown by all of North Catholic's athletic teams. RING THE BELL BIG NORTH FOR NORTH IS FOR WHOM IT TOLLS!!!

Then came winter.
It appeared quickly and was clothed in all its might.
Snow swirled
from the sky
ceaselessly
on Thanksgiving
day. Surely,
it seemed, this
was to be a
bleak season . . .

But by Christmas the
air became warm,
so warm that the
city seemed out
of place with its decorations . . .

Then, as we were returning from vacation, so also
was winter
returning from the North . . .

Underclassmen secured themselves for
the drudgery of the
months to come . . .

The seniors sat in classes that were no longer
important.
The relevance of school was
dwarfed by wistful dreams of the future.

It was there, in an
overheated room,
while looking out a
frosted window,
that decisions were made.

Once again the winds changed,
and once more life
bloomed anew. Under the fading snowdrifts a bud of life burgeoned through the soil; genesis. As the ice vanished there arose the dawn of a new spring. The splendor of this dawn unearthed and cast away the doubts of earlier seasons.
Clothed in its brilliance, spring had come. It has thrust life into the beginnings of a season
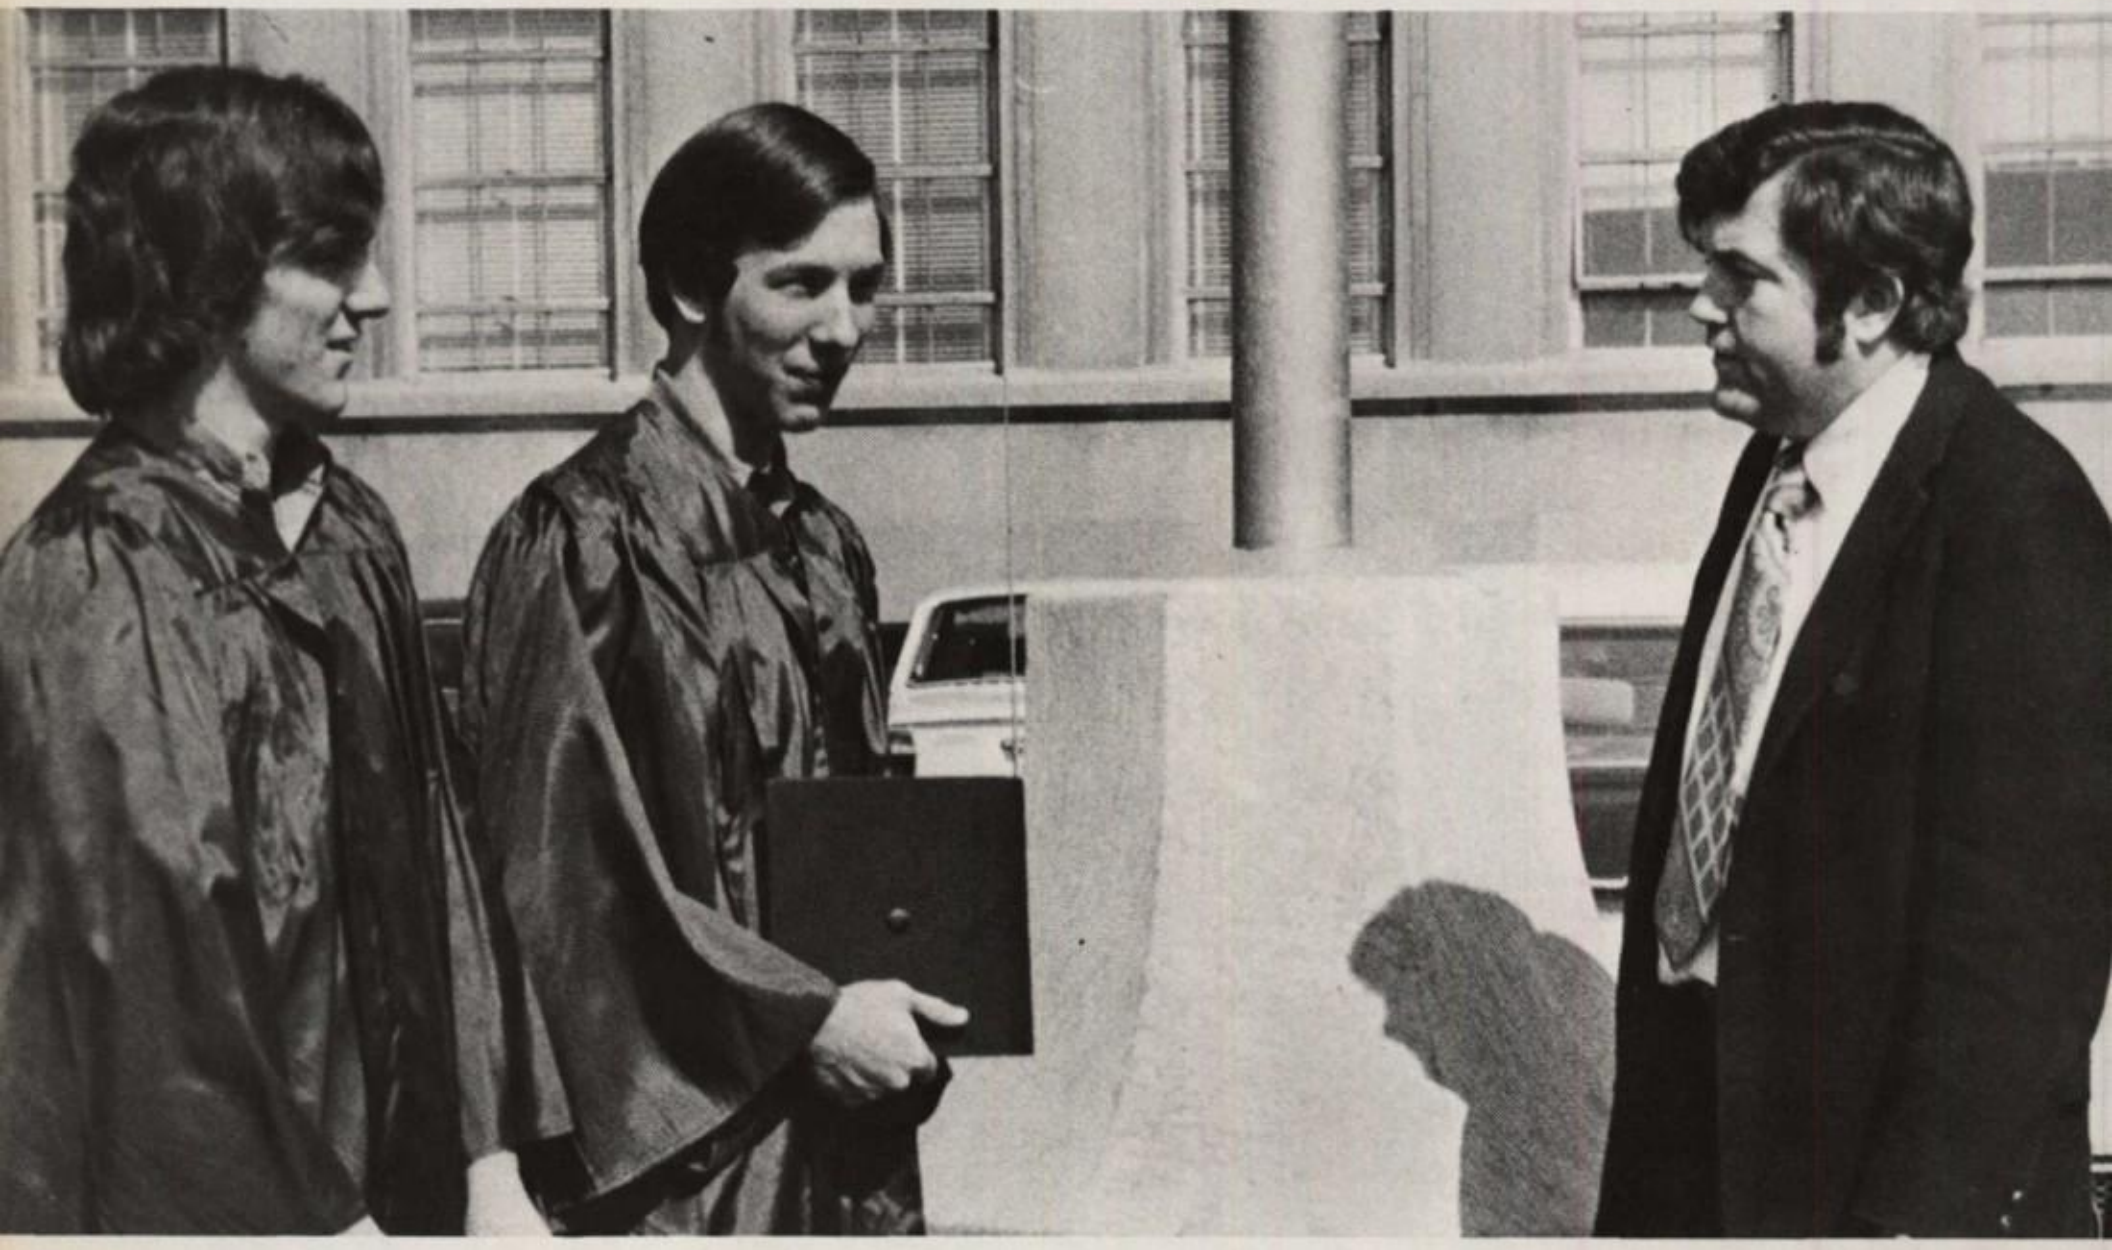
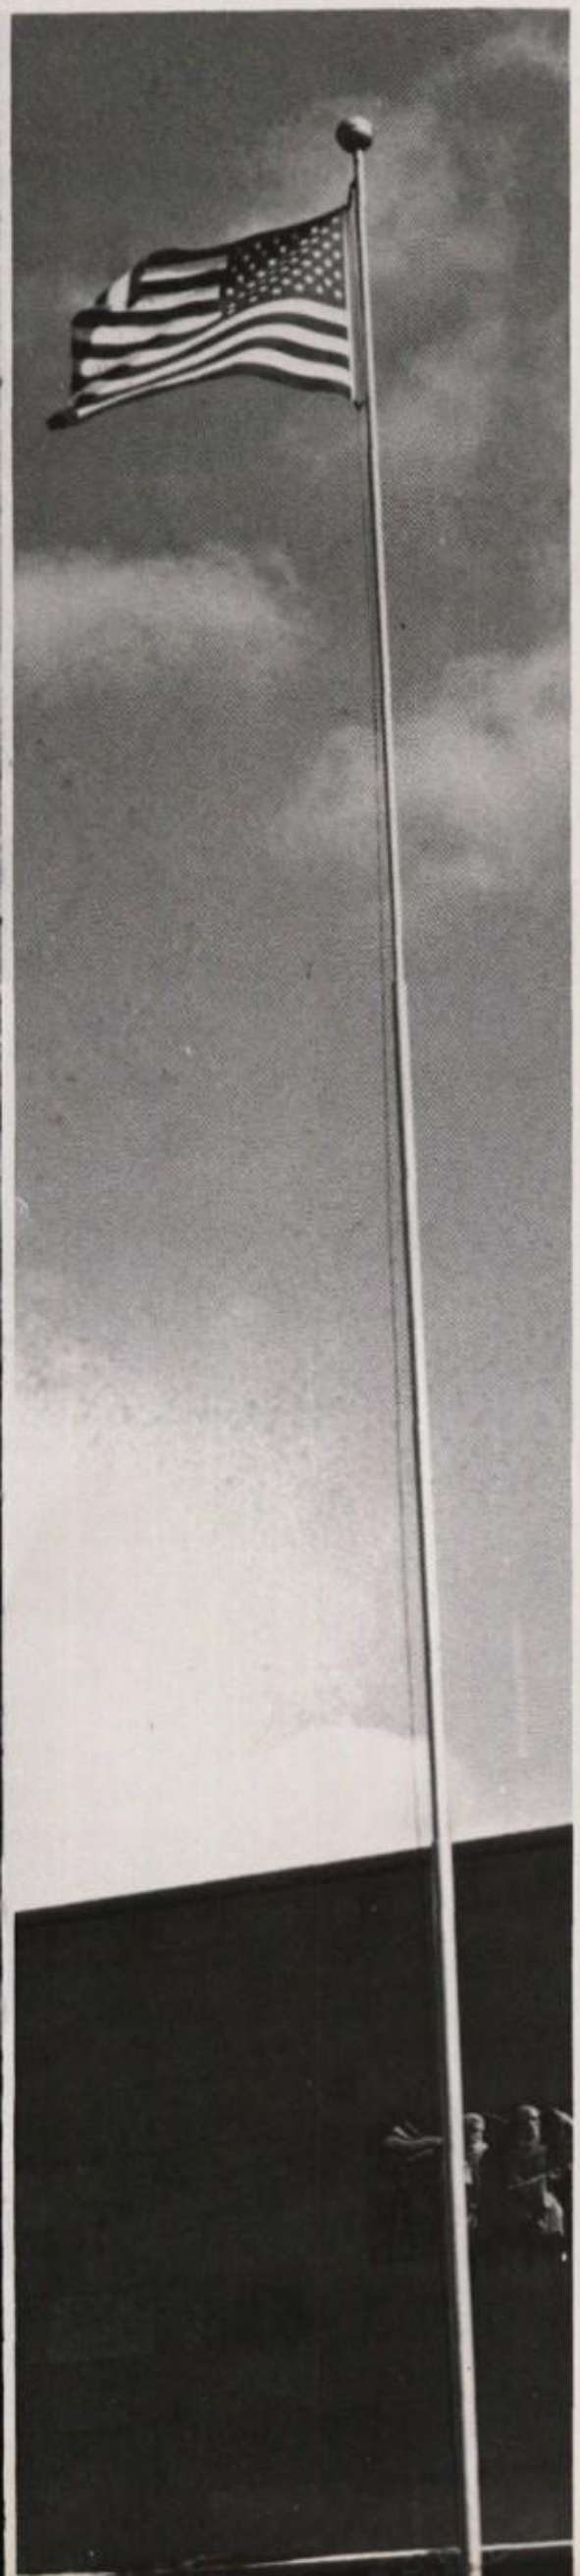
that is yet to come . . .





. . . Standing there, on the platform of a familiar hall, we, too, are the beginnings of a season — our season — that is yet to come. Gazing out from that platform, the paths we have followed spread placidly below us. Ahead, the path we are to take runs to the horizon. Beyond the horizon lies another season. There the beginnings will become ends, and there the ends will be harvested. Beyond is our season. It shall be the season to remake. Spring, you have scarcely begun when you must end. Even now the sunset is of red and gold. You have boldly enkindled your own demise. Spring, bless us with a noble destiny, for now it is the season to go.
